ONE CENT.

GAYNOR SUGGESTS REBATES REMEDY

Would Have People Name General Freight Agents.

ONLY ONES TO STOP EVIL

Roads Not Private Monopolies, but Public Highways.

Justice Asserts Government Has the Right to Control Railways as Absolutely as Toll Gates or Other Thoroughfares-The Standard Oil's Wealth Denounced as III Gotten, Tainted, and "It Smells to Heaven."

New York, Jan. 6.-Addressing the Peo- 10-Knights of Columbus Burn Mortgage. ple's Forum in New Rochelle this afternoon, Supreme Court Justice William J. SEVEN BREAK FROM DRYDEN. Gaynor pointed out a way in which the government could secure the control of

"Mr. Bryan, returning to this country, made a speech in which he suggested that the government take over all the taking place below the surface in New railroads on the ground that they are Jersey politics are at fault in their deprivate monopolies, and that such private ductions, the Hon. John F. Dryden's monopolies should not be allowed to chances of re-election to the United exist," said Justice Gaynor. "He is right about that, for we all abhor a private The action of the Union County delegamonopoly, but railroads are not private tion in requesting the withdrawal of Mr. monopolies. They are public highways Dryden from the race in the interest of under control of the government and the the party, accompanied by a statement government can control them.

at all but appoint the general freight agent of every railroad, and he, and he alone, can see to it that no one gets his freight shipped cheaper than another. his freight shipped cheaper than another, had thus put an end to this discrimina-nad thus put an end to this discrimina-Assemblyman Fake, of Bergen, and Taytion which means the aggrandizement lor, of Ocean, there are now seven memor a few and the destroying of the many bers who have placed themselves in open audience that filled the New Rochelle theater to overflowing. His subject was "Our railroads: they are public highways"

When Justice Mahlon Pitney, of the Supreme Court, was first mentioned, the suggestion was quickly followed by a report that he would not retire from the lift the Constanting were rendered.

Brisbane Praises Gaynor.

Arthur Brisbane presided at the meet ing, and in introducing Justice Gaynor paid a glowing tribute to the character of the speaker of the occasion. This was greeted with a great outburst of ap-the one on railroads.

Justice Gaynor, in prefacing his remarks. State legislator.

issues of tens and hundreds of millions bogus stocks and bonds that accompany such combinations they conceal, if, in deed, some of their heads can understand it all, then you are opposed to business interests, it is said."

The keynote of Justice Gaynor's remarks was that the railroads are just as much under government control as the dirt or toll-gate highways.

Standard Oil Money Tainted.

Justice Gaynor referred to railroad corporations as mere creatures of the law, and he added that, being created by law. they should not be permitted to unite and destroy competitio In speaking of President Roosevelt, the speaker said:

After discussing at great length the his source was tainted.

"Is it tainted?" asked the justice. "Well, stormy weather encountered. I should say it is. It smells to heaven." He then predicted that the wrath of weather for several days, and was plough-God would be visited on this country unless there were reforms along the lines weather for several days, and was ploughing along last Friday in a heavy sea,

"PLAY" DUEL PROVES FATAL.

Revolver Goes Off and One of the Combatants Dies.

Chanute, Kans., Jan. 6.—Orlin Bingley and Edward Reed, fourteen-year-old boy one of them, James Doyle, of Liverpool chums, fought a "play" duel this after- being instantly killed and the others benoon. The former was armed with an old rifle and an antiquated horse pistol. The big liner shook from stem to stern Reed had a 38-caliber revolver. He with the force of the impact, and the passnapped it several times to make sure sengers were tossed about in a most unit was not loaded before the boys squared ceremonious manner. Some of them were revolver went off, placing a bullet directly below Bingley's heart. He lived long enough to exonerate his companion weather continued until yesterday morn-

AUTO WRECKED ON BRIDGE. Two Occupants of Machine Badly

Injured at Atlantic City. Atlantic City, N. J., Jan. 6.-Edward Rankin Abernathy, of Lakewood, and his chauffeur were badly injured on the fatal is Mrs. Jacob Goldstein, and after a col-"Atco" railroad bridge this afternoon. Their machine went into a mud hole on a was christened Rachel Etruria Goldstein curve in the road, struck a railing on the bridge, and pitched the two out.

Capt. Potter, of the Etruria, declared to-night that never before had he ex-Abernathy received two scalp wounds perienced such rough weather. nearly torn off. Chauffeur Pierre Le-bonne sustained scalp wounds, a broken Tidal Waves Hit Ceylon.

London, Jan. 7 .- A dispatch to the Tribune from Colombo says there were pronounced tidal waves on the south coast

WEATHER FORECAST.

For the District of Columbia-Partly cloudy to-day and to-morrow; colder to-morrow; light southwesterly winds, becoming variable.

HERALD NEWS SUMMARY.

TELEGRAPHIC. -Steamship Pence sighted.

1-Wave Kills Sailor on Ship. 1-Louis Delario Burns to Death 1-Emma Goldman Again Arrested. -Justice Gaynor Talks on Rebates.

Robbery 2-Fire Kills Three in New York. 3-Attorney General Answers Bailey. 5-Czar to Forestall Douma.

1-Philadelphia Bomb Thrower Planned

LOCAL.

2-Chinese Republic Advocated. -Sargent Would Check Alien Tide. 2-Fire in Murray Plant Causes $11,600

2-Tillman Opposes Negro Troops Going to Philippines. 7-West Points Out Wreck Lesson, 10-Noted Geologist Talks on Bible.

Senator's Chances Fast Waning. Justice Pitney May Accept.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 6.-Unless outward signs fail, and keen observers of what is which is regarded as equivalent to a "The government needs to do nothing declaration that the delegation would not revolt against Mr. Dryden. This is the Justice Gaynor was greeted by an total Republican majority on joint ballet. under government control, and not pri-bench if the Senatorship were tendered vate roads." found to be without foundation,

SENATOR BURNHAM HAS FIGHT.

Chances for Re-election About Even. Chandler Also in the Race.

Manchester, N. H., Jan 6.-United States Judge Gaynor began by saying that the Senator Burnham has the fight of his life subject he was to speak on was not of coming on Wednesday, when he is up for his own selection. He said he had chosen re-election by the legislature. Ex-Senator another, but that the members of the William E. (Wasp) Chandler, whom Ad-Forum's committee had assigned him to miral Evans classified as "an insect," is gunning for the place, and so are George "What I have to say to you can be of armer of Dublin, and Henry M. Baker, lawyer, in prefacing his remarks."

B. Leighton, Harvard, 'SS, gentleman farmer of Dublin, and Henry M. Baker, lawyer, ex-Congressman, and present

WAVE KILLS SAILOR ON LINER

Cunarder Etruria Has Rough Passage from Liverpool to New York.

Wall of Water Sweeps Deck, Seriously Injuring Half a Dozen

Members of Crew.

New York, Jan. 6.- The big Cunard They say he used a big stick. Well, a liner Etruria came into port from Liverdeck fixtures washed away and her flag had weathered them all right, and as the at half mast, as the result of the killing weather has been well-nigh perfect ever the secret rebate from railroads. Justice Gayner said that it amused him to see ministers of the Gospel, college professors, ministers of the Gospel, college professors, capt.

> The Etruria had experienced severe out in search of her. giant wave broke over the vessel with terrific force, carrying away stanchions on the port side when it was washed She made the passage in 163 days. away, and they were thrown with terrific force against the side of the deck cabin, ing, when the skies cleared and the high

Seaman William Newell was taken rom the vessel to-night to St. Vincent's Hospital, where it is said that he will probably die. The others hurt will re-

While the storm was at its height a girl lection amounting to $50 had been taken Four Die in Dynamite Explosion. Austin, Tex., Jan. 6.-A dispatch from and contusions. The machine was Parral, Mexico, says that a dynamite explesion occurred in the mine of the Veta Grande Mining Company near there, killing four men and injuring others.

THE SOUTHERN'S PALM LIMITED. nounced tidal waves on the south coast of Ceylon Friday, three hours after the seismograph had recorded a great submarine disturbance, probably in the vicinity of Wharton Deep, 2,000 miles to the southeast.

J. H. Small & Sons, Florists, Washington and New York.

For the greatest amount of heat at the least expense, use an Ofte Hot-water Radiator. Demorstrations, 569 9th st. nw.

From Washington 6:15 p. m. Southern Railway announces resumption "The Southern's Palm Limited" to Florida and the South, effective first train passing through Washington 6:15 p. m. January, 1307, and week-days thereafter. Quite superior train; latest examples of equipment with 14 most recent appliances and decorations. Pullman, sleeping, compartment, club, and observation cars and Southern Railway dining cars, electric lighted throughout. Sleepers for Aiken, Augusta, Savannah, Jacksonville, and St. Augustine; also sleeper bi-weekly to Charleston. From Washington 6:15 p. m.

CONGRESSIONAL SNAPSHOTS

WASHINGTON, D. C., MONDAY, JANUARY 7, 1907

Ship Probably Delayed by Broken Machinery.

SPOKEN AFTER GALE IS OVER

Clipper Shenandoah Signals the Ponce, and Belief Now Is that Vessel Drifted Out of Regular Channel for Coasters, Which Accounts for No News from Missing Steamer.

New York, Jan. 6.-The big American tere to-day from Port Blakeley, Wash. s the first vessel to get here to report ighting the overdue steamship Ponce, of he New York and Porto Rico Steamship Company, which sailed for this port from Ponce, P. R., on Christmas afternoon. The Shenandoah was in communication with

Shenandoah was in communication with

The McCulloch did pick up in distress with the police, which for a time threat-by giving his son and his bride seventy.

The McCulloch did pick up in distress with the police, which for a time threat-by giving his son and his bride seventy.

The defort to locate any wreckage of the Passic Clinton at Clinton at Clinton and after an altercation by giving his son and his bride seventy.

The McCulloch did pick up in distress with the police, which for a time threat-by giving his son and his bride seventy.

The McCulloch did pick up in distress were exactly similar by giving his son and his bride seventy. "I have only facts so dry that it is not There are five other dark horses, in-Shenandoah was in communication with ine," said Capt. Chapman, of the Shenan

"The Ponce was going along well. She turned out of her course a little in orde to speak with us when we signaled the well. The Ponce wished us a pleasan oyage up the coast, and a happy New Louis Delario, House Committee Year. Then she passed on northward, Good Weather Since.

"We have had the best of weather since we saw the Ponce on the twenty-eighth and I can hardly think that she ran into any storms of unusual violence. In all probability she is late because of broker machinery. Had there been severe weather we would have experienced it ourselves

Inasmuch as the gales that had been ministers of the Gospel, college professors, and others asking whether money from this source was tainted.

the passengers on board were panny frightened, and were glad to get ashere, as they had been compelled to remain below decks for several days on account of the units of the passengers on board were panny frightened.

Chapman declares that he thinks the ponce is either now in tow of some they had been compelled to remain below decks for several days on account of the units of the passengers on board were panny frightened.

Chapman declares that he thinks the ponce is either now in tow of some they had been compelled to remain below decks for several days on account of the units of the passengers on board were panny frightened.

Chapman declares that he thinks the ponce is either now in tow of some they had been compelled to remain below decks for several days on account of the units of the passengers on board were panny frightened. up by the revenue cutters that are now | The injured:

Callers Are Assured, The opinion of the captain of the sail-that he had spoken of. He said that the with the wind blowing very strong from ing ship is also held by the agents of practices of the railroads in making agree- the northwest, when a huge wall of water the line, who assured the callers at their was filled with smoke. The train was practices of the railroads in making agree-ments with certain corporations, whereby the individual rights of others are de-shouted to all hands, and the sailors on the individual rights of others are de-shouted to all hands, and the sailors on that the Ponce is safe, and will be re-ported from some part late fo-night or stroyed, could not end in other than a deck rushed for places of safety. The ported from some port late fo-night or his clothing completely consumed. The quelled, however, and the meeting was giant wave broke over the transfer of the Shenandoan brought has terrific force, carrying away stanchions and deck fixtures.

The Shenandoan brought has largest cargo of pine timber that has reached here in several years, she having reached here in several years, she having the standard of the several years.

CITY OF PANAMA IS SAFE. Vessel Thought Lost Reaches First Port of Call in México.

San Francisco, Jan. 6.- The agents of he Pacific Mail Steamship Company toight received a dispatch from Mazatlan Mexico, which set at rest the appreher sion that has existed as to the fate of the steamer City of Panama ever since wreckage from that vessel and two provisioned life rafts were washed ashore off Waddell Beach Thursday. The tele gram states that the missing steamer was sighted this evening off that port, and that she would land within an hour,

This is the Panama's first port of call and she is a day ahead of time, which would indicate that despite the storm she had a good passage. Her arrival there shows that the agents of the line were right when they declared that a wave had probably smashed across the lipper ship Shenandoah, which arrived vessel, carrying away her deckload and the life rafts, which are always kept partially provisioned.

The revenue cutter McCulloch returned this afternoon from a cruise along the

BURNS TO DEATH IN SLEEPER

Clerk, Dead; Three Injured.

Victim's Lifeless Body Found in His Berth, Where Blaze Is Believed to Have Started.

big stick was needed, and a very big stick, at that."

liner Etruria came into port from Liver-pool to-day with a large portion of her deck fixtures washed away and her flag bad weathered them all right and she had weathered them all right and she were injured in a mysterious fire to-night laws for the time the Ponce was sighted, and she were injured in a mysterious fire to-night laws for the time the Ponce was sighted and she was sighted and three persons are injured in a mysterious fire to-night laws for the crowded that the laws for the time the Ponce was sighted and she was sighted and she was sighted and she was sighted and three persons are injured in a mysterious fire to-night laws for the crowded that the laws for the control of the crowded that the laws for the crowded that the laws for the control of the crowded that the laws for the control of the crowded that the laws for the crowded that the laws for the crowded the laws for the crowded that the laws for the crowded th in the Pullman sleeping car Redfield, on speakers would be Berkman, Goldman, and rebates, for which, in the event of coning and had not returned. methods employed by Standard Oil in doing away with competition by means of the secret relate from railroad's Los Angeles (Coryell. The matter was called to the air is of the opinion that if her machinery the secret relate from railroad's Los Angeles (Limited, en route to Chicago, between tention of Capt. Handy, of the Madison t Council Bluffs and Missouri Valley.

LOUIS DELARIO, of Laramic, Wyo., en route to Washington, D. C., where he is clerk for the

O. H. Johnson, Salt Lake City. Henry Cabrow, Salt Lake City

Mrs. B. Higgins, Carbondale, Pa. The fire was not noticed until the car injured suffered from smoke and from begun. the panic to escape. The fire evidently started in Delario's

Seven sailors were clinging to a support on board 2,300,000 feet from Port Blakeley. berth, and had apparently smoldered for brightened up wonderfully since be came

POLICE GET BERKMAN

Frick's Assailant Denounces President Roosevelt.

EMMA GOLDMAN ALSO JAILED.

Anarchist Meeting Turns Into a Threatening Mob as Detectives Clamber Upon Stage and Drag Fiery Speakers to Prison-Socialist John R. Coryell Falls Into Dragnet.

New York, Jan. 6.-Emma Goldman and her latest "husband," Alexander Berkistic meeting at Clinton Hall, 151 Clinton repeated the remark. John R. Coryell, a well-known writer on cialism, who was held on the charge of iolating the laws by making public attacks on the government and its officials and Israel Schwartz, who was charged with disorderly conduct. Anarchists Grow Bold.

The New York branch of the "reds" has been unusually active of late and have been holding meetings nightly, among whom have been leading members of the colony that has its headquarters in Paterson, N. J., but as the meetings have been secret and only members permitted to be present, the police have been unable to do anything. Yesterday, however, it Council Bluffs, Iowa, Jan. 6.-One man was announced that a public meeting eserves on duty to-night.

Inside the hall Goldman, Berkman, and guilty." Coryell were seated on the platform, and the entrance of the police was greeted the entrance of the police was greeted the present ruling will prevent a resent to

Police Raid the Stage.

to this city, and weighs fully fifty pounds more than he did when released from As snor as the slave Handy took a hand. Motioning to one of his detectives, the latter jumped to the platform and placed Berkman under trict of Illinois.

the "reds" penetrating far beyond the portals of the hall as she denounced the "high-handed act of the tyrants," and in a moment the entire audience was on its feet ready to attack the police. The latter drew their clubs, and Handy latter drew their clubs, and their clubs are clubs, and their clubs are clubs. the "reds" penetrating far beyond the former are pending in the Tennessee cleared, and the police outside aiding ment regards the Chicago cases as the National Bank, was a former Chicago their comrades within, soon had every one most important anti-corporation proceedin the street. Schwartz cursed Capt. Handy for interfering with "free speech," Judge Landis d and was promptly snatched up and of the indictments has also placed this thrown into the pairol wagen, with a case far in ndvance of any of the others.

Addison street, being customan of the Chicago, Milways promptly snatched up and of the indictments has also placed this Addison street depot of the Chicago, Milways and St. Paul Railroad.

Try to Hold Second Meeting. The prisoners were taken to the Madison street station, where their pedigrees Charles B. Poor, Former Inmate of were taken and they were locked up.

Berkman and Goldman were bailed within half an hour after arrest by Sam- formerly a well-to-do merchant of this uel Elsberg, of 146 Essex street, who gave city, who was released from Bloominghis saloon at that number as security for dale a year ago, after seven years' conthe appearance of the pair in the Police finement, on the application of his wife, Court in the morning. Coryell was also committed suicide this afternoon by jumpbailed later in the night, but Schwartz ing into the Harlem ship canal at West

After they were released Goldman and Berkman returned to the hall and tried the Alcolm Company, at 200 Broadway. to start another meeting, but were "chased" by the police. Both denounced their arrest as a violation of their constitutional rights, and declared their inntion of having attorneys present in the HOTEL GUESTS DIE IN FIRE.

Blaze Starts in Kitchen and Three Are Suffocated in Their Beds. Delhi, N. Y., Jan. 6.—The American House, a frame hotel, situated across from the railroad depot, was destroyed by fire early to-day, and three guests burned to death and several others received slight Elaborate Outfit Found in njuries. The dead are:

JOHN O'CONNER, twenty-nine years old. WILLIAM WINTER, forty-seven years old.

CATHERINE WINTER, thirty-four years old. The fire caught from a stove in the ditchen, and before it was discovered had MAN'S IDENTITY KNOWN practically gutted the entire lower floor The three who lest their lives were suffocated in their beds and their bodies

The injured, none of whom is seriously burt, escaped from the burning building by jumping to a shed in the rear. The loss will be about $20,000, covered by

FIND BODY IN BURNING HOUSE. Neighbors of Daniel Davis Seek Mo-

Atlantic City, N. J., Jan. 6.-A telephon nessage received to-night from Absecor states that the body of Daniel S. Davis, a wealthy farmer, was found in his parfound were covered with blood.

That robbery was not the motive seems been disturbed.

FEARS CHURCH RUPTURE.

Liberals and Socialists Try to Provoke Anti-Clerical Feeling.

Rome, Jan. 6.-The Italian Liberals, nited with the Socialists, are trying underhandedly to provoke an anti-clerical policy here, hoping to follow France's example. The present government, although it does not sympathize with the Vatican, fears that an anti-clerical movement complice, and that it was the plan for might weaken the monarchy.

renuously to prevent any attempt likely

Father Begins Saving Wedding

Present at His Son's Birth. man, the latter the anarchist who served father of a boy baby twenty years ago, worth while setting them before any but the intelligent mind, which counts in moving the world.

"If you object to the successive mergers of city railroads, for instance, ac
"If we were about 800 miles from Sandy of caucus fight Wednesday. Betting is about so that the successive mergers of city railroads, for instance, ac
There are five other dark horses, including ex-Governors McLane and Jordan, Congressman Currier, and Frank West Rollins, the morning of December 28, latitude 27.48 north, longing the world of Pigeon Point, at 5:20 a. m., the lumber of Pigeon Point, at 5:20

STANDARD TO GO . TO TRIAL

Attorney Says No Further Delay Will Be Sought by Trust.

Suit Is Against Indiana Corporation, Prosecution Will Attempt to Force Trial February 1.

Chicago, Jan. 6.-The Standard Oil Comstructure in the heart of the crowded delay in the trial of the government's Clinton Hall to-night, and when he got there he found a crowd of 299 packed in the hall, while at least double that number were outside trying to get in. The captain of heading of such a page for the hall, while at least double that number were outside trying to get in. The captain of heading of such a page for the least page of such a pag were outside trying to get in. The captain forced his way into the hall with several of heading off such a move that he of his men, while the others were in-structed to keep the crowd outside date on which the corporation must enter its formal plea of "guilty" or "not chances of such maneuvering to a state Fair had a privilege booth.

Attorney Miller says the oil company's

The government is not worried over the been greatly depressed by reason of the been greatly depressed by reason of the Miss Goldman and Coryell promptly pro- dismissal of two out of the ten indict- fact that his wife, Bessie L. Steele, and ceeded to denounce the police, the shrill ments originally returned, inasmuch as voice of the tall, thin female leader of the same points as those covered in the bosnital, and he was almost without ordered the arrest of both Miss Goldman civil guit to dissolve the Standard Oil threw the bomb in Philadelphia, killing and Coryell. The hall was then ordered Company of New Jersey, the govern-himself and the cashier of the Fourth

Judge Landis' decision upholding eight

ENDS LIFE IN SHIP CANAL.

Bloomingdale, Suicides. New York, Jan. 6.-Charles B. Poor, 221st street. From papers found in his clothes he has recently been employed by

An Important Question.

A la Carte Lunch Served Daily at Eckstein's from 12 to 3. 1412 N. Y. ave.

PLAN TO ROB BANK CAREFULLY MADE

Bomb Thrower's Room.

Ironworker and Expert in Use of Explosives.

Electric Fuses, Cartridges, Nippers, Files, &c., in Grip in Which Steele Carried the Bomb-Worked in Chicago, and Later at Various Places in Virginia-Theories as to Plans of Escape After Getting Money.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 6.—Discovery of store of weapons, dynamite fuses, electric fuses, cartridges, and a general outfit being found to-night, which convinced the was not a weak-minded crank, but a determined man, who came to this city with

The man's identity was made certain, Chicago. His name was found upon porever committed the crime is believed to tions of clothing in his room, and he reghave set the house on fire. istered at the New Grant Hotel, at Eighth and Spring Garden streets, on Friday as 'J. R. Steele, of New York.

Upon arriving he refused to allow a porter to carry his brown leather grip, which undoubtedly contained the bomb, which so completely wrecked the interior of the city's biggest bank and killed Cashier William McLear, besides blowing Steele himself to bits.

Some of the police officials think that Steele may have come here to meet an achim to throw the bomb in one portion of opportune, and a member of the cabinet gather up the money. Captain of Detecays the government is determined to seek tives Donahue, however, thinks the chances are that Steele intended to opero lead to an anti-Vatican policy, and that ate by himself, throwing the bomb far from him, and working during the excitement sure to follow,

Expert With Explosives,

That he was expert in the use of exlosives was proven by the contents of his grip discovered in the hotel. Besides articles of clothing showing that volver, box of cartridges, four yards of

Besides these articles and the clothing, the grip also contained some newsaper clippings, a freight bill made Steele by the Southern Railway for box of pictures, plain cards, a ruler, eraser, fountain pen, a box of nails, and memorandum upon a piece of brown paper, almost illegible, but evidently arking the time of appointments to meet several men. The clothing was all made and sold in Chicago, with the exception of the overalls, which bore the mark of a store in Lynchburg, Va.

His Stopping Place Learned. At the New Grant Hotel a description of the bomb thrower was left, but no mention was made of any name, and it was not until this afternoon that Mrs. L. L. Plunkett, who is in charge of the hotel, came to Capt. Donahue's office in lower East Side. It was stated that the suit charging the acceptance of railroad hotel Friday had gone out Saturday mornthat a man who had registered at the

Detective Smith was assigned to go to

All of the injured in the bomb throwing

Lynchburg, Va., Jan. 6.-J. Rollin Steele, author of the Philadelphia bank outrage, came to this city last September having been employed on concrete work These were soon the meeting was further dilatory tactics, but expresses the meeting was opinion that the shortness of the period Montvale, Va. At the end of September at the defense's disposal will reduce the superintendent of a re-enforced concrete As soon as the plea is entered a date job on a building here for a wholesale the Pennsylvania prison. For a time he will be set for a trial, which the government will seek to begin not later than week. He told a friend that he had a job warmed to his subject, he began to de-nounce President Roosevelt and the gov-ney's choice of an indictment on which ing, when he left home, told his wife he rnment of the United States. Then Capt. to go to trial will depend the question was going to Danville, Va., to get work, His fellow-workmen said he was a capable man, but much given to experi menting with explosives. Of late he had hospital, and he was almost without money. His wife had only read of the explosion this afternoon, and could not believe the bomb-thrower was her hus-

Has Divorced Wife in Chicago. Chicago, Jan. 6.-Rollin Steele, who man. A divorced wife and three sons still reside in Chicago, Mrs. Steele, of 1255 waukee and St. Paul Railroad.

Steele was in the employ of Fairbanks, Morse & Co. as foreman of a last week. In this letter he complained as usual that the world was not using him right. "He was never," she said, "an ut and out socialist.

Grand Crossing, Ill.., working there for "My former husband was always of a gentle disposition," Mrs. Steele said to day. The assassin was never a member burned to a crisp.

tive for Double Crime. tially burned farmhouse, near there, to- the room occupied in Philadelphia by the day. Davis had apparently been beaten man who threw the bomb in the Fourth to death with a club, as the walls and Street National Bank Saturday led to a floors of the room in which the body was ertain, as valuables in a drawer had not police yesterday that the bomb thrower

Neighbors, attracted to the scene, extinguished the flames before the frame the definite intention of robbing a bank. structure was completely destroyed, and when search was made for Davis his He is Rollin Steele, whose family lives in body was found in the building. Who-

Hence, it considers that such a policy is the bank, trusting to the other man to

GIFT OF 75 POUNDS IN COIN.

Frankfort, Ind., Jan. 6.-When Zimri Steele must have been well over six Sheets, of Owen Township, became the feet in height, the grip contained a rea long time in prison at Pittsburg for an he said, "the girl who marries my son dynamite fuse, six long electric fuses, attempt on the life of Henry C. Frick, will have to be strong to lift the money I with loaded caps, ball of waxed cord, coast between here and Santa Cruz in an were the chief performers at an anarch- shall give her." He frequently afterward window cord, two files, nippers, wax, and pany of Indiana will attempt no further response to the message sent out stating street police station, and he ordered the Such at least is the announcement of had registered as J. R. Steele, of New eserves on duty to-night.

Attorney John S. Miller, for the defense.

With twenty-five men he bore down on Prosecutor Sims is still apprehensive that Worked in Virginia Towns.

For the past two months he had been gang of iron workers which traveled about putting up water tanks and coal sheds. A year ago he left Chicago to Mrs. Steele received a letter from him

When Steele was in Chicago he was an iron worker. He was foreman of con-struction on the Tribune building. When of the Chicago police force.

SWORN CIRCULATION OF THE WASHINGTON HERALD

The Washington Herald last week printed, circulated, and sold 211,866 papers. The circulation for each day of the week was as

Sunday, December 30 (including extra)	31.108
Monday, December 31	. 37,626
Tuesday, January 1
Wednesday, January 2	. 27,635
Thursday, January 3
Friday, January 4	27,489
Saturday, January 5	28,530
	211,866

Daily average...... 30,267 I solemnly swear that the above statement represents the number of copies of The Washington Herald actually circulated and sold during the days named ended January 5, 1907.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 5th day of January,

A. D. 1907.

(Seal.)

PAUL F. CAIN,

J. HARRY CUNNINGHAM,

Notary Public, D. C.

morning to fight the case